

Stand Together for Pittsburgh – Support Local Supermarkets

Supermarkets are an important force in our local economy. Local grocery chains provide our communities with access to affordable, quality food. Even more importantly, responsible supermarket chains are the source of quality jobs that can support a family and where workers can negotiate their working conditions.

Walmart's business model is a drain on our local economy—shifting profits back to Arkansas and undermining good jobs with substandard wages and benefits for its workforce.

Join us on May 4 to ask Pittsburgh consumers to Invest in Local Businesses
Shop Local
Shop Giant Eagle

Consumer Education and Press Conference
May 4 at 1:30 p.m.
Waterworks/Fox Chapel Giant Eagle
901 Freeport Road
Pittsburgh, PA

www.sharethesuccessufcw23.org

Sponsored by UFCW Local 23, Pittsburgh Communities Organizing for Change and Pittsburgh United